TURKEY DAY CONTEST

Ogden high is again in the limelight!

This time, however, it is the girl athletes of the school who bid fair to capture honors galore on the basketball floor. Under the direction of Miss Margaret Stookey, instructor for women, the game is being introduced and several of the fair ones are said to be real clever at caging baskets from the various positions on the floor, as well as displaying the class of stars of the first order.

Basketbail is a wonderful sport.

Aside from a few bumps one may obtain in a close struggle, it is one of the most exercising athletic contests one could take part in. At least, that is the opinion of those who play the game.
